

CLAIM GERMANY HAS VIOLATED LOCARNO TREATY

League Council Has Not Decided What Action To Take

BULLETIN
By the Associated Press.
Disputing Locarno members, engaged in controversy over German violation of the Locarno pact, apparently reached a tentative agreement early Thursday.

A French spokesman said the diplomatic representatives had tentatively agreed on a plan to suggest to the League of Nations Council after its details had been reviewed at simultaneous meetings of the British cabinet in London and the French cabinet in Paris.

The proposal presumably would solve the question in the league council, torn between the desires of France which wants punishment of the Reich and Britain which seeks a new peace framework for Europe.

By the Associated Press.

The Council of the League of Nations was prepared to find Germany guilty of a violation of the Locarno treaty Thursday, but its membership was far apart on what to do next. France wants punishment of the Reich to follow unless she withdraws her troops from the Rhineland; Britain wants mediation and a new peace framework built on the ashes of Locarno.

Italy, her war with Ethiopia relegated to the sidelines, appeared to be in a happy strategic position. One member of the council predicted sanctions here would be lifted in order to secure her vote that Germany is guilty.

France, meanwhile, disclosed that thousands of reservists would be called into training and sent to frontier posts because of the crisis. Germany will make her appearance before the council Thursday. A spokesman for the Berlin delegation, which arrived in London Wednesday, said it would announce to the council that "Germany is in the Rhineland to stay."

Anthony Eden, Britain's foreign secretary who is holding out for consultation between France and Germany, visited Joachim Von Ribbentrop, head of the Nazi delegation, to urge him not to inflame France at the council session.

Both Great Britain and Italy disclosed they opposed sanctions against Germany.

Adolf Hitler, continuing his speaking tour in the Rhineland, asserted he recognized "only one court in the world—the German people" and said "no power" could persuade him to change his present course.

Optimism over prospects for peace was widespread in Berlin after the delegation departed for London.

Flood Waters Sweeping Sections From Western Pennsylvania to Vermont

By The Associated Press.

The flood situation at a glance:
Pennsylvania—Thirty reported dead; Pittsburgh, Johnstown and scores of other cities flooded; fires and explosions and general power failure add to terror in Pittsburgh.

Massachusetts—Man swept to death when bridge collapsed; North Adams engulfed; highways washed out at Warwick.

Vermont—Four dead.

Maine—One life lost; damage estimated by Governor Brann at $10,000,000.

Connecticut—Dozen buildings swept away at New Hartford as dam crumbles.

New Hampshire—Highways flooded at Hinsdale.

New York—One thousand homeless as Susquehanna rises; communications disrupted at Ithaca; hundreds evacuate homes at Binghamton; national guard mobilized.

Virginia—Two drowned; Shenandoah valley damaged by wind.

Maryland—One dead; streets flooded at Cumberland; damage more than $100,000.

West Virginia—Thousands along Ohio river leave homes; inundation of Wheeling Island expected.

Georgia—Two killed in windstorm.

North Carolina—Hundreds of school children in western part of state marooned by snowdrifts.

A sudden spring thaw accompanied by rains and storms spread destructive flood waters over vast areas of the east Wednesday.

With at least thirty nine known dead, incalculable property damage and many thousands of persons homeless, the flood waters swept sections from western Pennsylvania to Vermont.

The steel capital—Pittsburgh—was in a state of almost complete paralysis as water stood ten feet deep in some downtown streets; rail and highway traffic was cut off, and power failure left the city in darkness.

The famous flood city of Johnstown, Pa., was largely deserted as citizens fled in panic after reports circulated that the Quemaoning dam had broken or was weakening. Indications were, however, the dam would hold.

At least thirty deaths were reported in Pennsylvania alone as floods raged that state for the second time in as many weeks.

Additional casualties reported from Maryland, Virginia, New York, Massachusetts, Maine and Vermont brought the total death list to at least 39.

Upwards of 25,000 persons were left homeless and suffering before the rampaging rivers and slashing storms had done their work. Property damage mounted steadily into the multiple millions.

Thousands of persons fled their homes as the frenzied floodwaters rolled along the Allegheny, Monongahela, Ohio, Potomac and other rivers.

Plas for help from scores of cities brought a presidential order mobilizing all federal relief agencies.

Pittsburgh, swept by the most devastating flood in its history, was terrorized by explosions and fires, darkness and isolation.

Communication with the outside was virtually disrupted late in the day by a general power failure.

Swirling waters submerged 40 per cent of the steel capital's principal business streets, marooning thousands of persons in office buildings without food, light or heat, closing banks, the stock exchange and stores, and bringing traffic to a standstill.

A series of fires and explosions injured 40 persons and may have killed others. A brick house in suburban Lawrenceville filled with refugees was ripped apart by a sudden blast, injuring 30. Firemen stood waist deep in floodwaters to fight the flames.

The city was threatened with a food shortage and disease.

The flood in Johnstown was the most devastating since the disaster of 1889 when 2,235 lives were lost.

Twenty-six feet of water engulfed the city's rebuilt business district at the peak of the flood but receded rapidly during the day, leaving wrecked property valued at some $1,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Fires and explosions added to the burdens borne by the steel metropolis.

At least 49 were hurt in the series of blasts and fires.

There were five known or reported dead in Pittsburgh and a total of 27 reported to have perished throughout flood-ravaged Pennsylvania.

Horner's Opinion Sought On Writ In Walter Nesbit Case

Question Of Governor's Stand Brings Delay On Hearing Of Motion

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—(P)—Governor Horner's decision on whether he would abide by the lower court ruling was sought tonight as a key point in the suit of Walter Nesbit of Belleville, Democratic candidate for committeeman in the twenty-second district, for a place on the April 14 primary ballot.

The question of the governor's stand, raised by Nesbit's attorneys, brought a delay on a hearing of a motion to appeal to the state supreme court the mandamus order requiring the state certifying board to qualify Nesbit.

Nesbit obtained the mandamus order after the board previously had declared him ineligible because his nomination petitions contained the word "nomination" instead of "election."

Mr. Horner tonight was in the northern part of the state in the interest of his campaign for nomination for governor and efforts were being made to obtain a written statement on his stand in the case so that the hearing could be resumed tomorrow.

Even if the governor decides against an appeal, attorneys said supreme court action could be sought on behalf of the other two members of the board, Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes and Auditor of Public Accounts Edward J. Barron.

If the notice of appeal is allowed to stand as a supersedeas, the mandamus order, issued Tuesday, would be voided. Nesbit's attorneys opposed the granting of a writ of supersedeas on the ground that the circuit court could not nullify its own decision.

TRIAL OPENS
Benton, Ill., March 18.—(P)—Opening arguments were heard here today in the trial of Mitchell McDonald and Robert Robertson, charged with bombing the Valley Coal company mine at Valley last August.

States Attorney Marion Hart told the jury he expected to prove that certain exhibits taken from the defendants home were identical with bomb fragments found at the mine following the blast.

REPORT NET INCOME
Chicago, March 18.—(P)—Commonwealth Edison company reported today net income for February was $1,062,498.51 against $1,064,953.51 for the same month last year.

For the first two months of the year net income was $2,262,180.53 against $2,334,593.92 for the period in 1935.

Gross earnings for February this year were $7,025,068.76 against $6,724,568.40 for the month last year.

SERIOUSLY INJURED
Rockford, Ill., March 18.—(P)—Miss Ruth Knisley, 23, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Robert W. Page, 27, Rockford, were seriously injured today when their automobile struck a Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific railroad freight train at a grade crossing near Davis Junction, Ill.

They were brought to a Rockford hospital by passersby who found them unconscious on the railroad tracks, both suffered skull fractures and possible internal injuries. Miss Knisley's left arm was crushed.

WILL ASK DELAY
Chicago, March 18.—(P)—The city council ordered Corporation Counsel Barnett Hodes today to ask a delay in the interstate commerce commission's ruling on the city's petition for an order to the railroads to change from central standard to eastern standard time. The request for a delay was pursuant to a resolution passed last week by the council at Mayor Edward J. Kelly's recommendation, in support of a movement for a referendum on the proposition next November.

900 GUARDSMEN ARE ON DUTY IN PITTSBURGH, PA.

700,000 Terrified Citizens Watch The Rivers

(Copyright, 1936, by the Associated Press.)

Pittsburgh, March 18.—(P)—Nine hundred National Guardsmen patrolled this terrified city of 700,000 tonight while fearful residents watched rivers reach their crest and turned to the new terror of possible food shortage, darkness, disease and pillage.

The waters reached the record-breaking level of 45 feet, 20 feet above flood stage, before they began to recede slowly. Weather observers said the slow subsidence would continue through the night although a new rain began.

Food profiteering, with prices soaring skyward in the inundated areas, confronted Pittsburgh. Public Safety Director Thomas Dunn told Mayor William N. McNair of the rising prices and asked a proclamation to curb profits at the expense of the suffering.

"I'll sign the proclamation as soon as it reaches me," the mayor said.

The flood covered whole blocks of the city's business district and hundreds of homes were filled with water. The list of homeless rose rapidly into the thousands.

The Guardsmen went on duty in the "Triangle" to prevent looting and also lent aid to refugees.

The biggest flood of history in this section was rolling on toward cities down the Ohio with misery yet to come for them. Wheeling, W. Va., expected 30,000 homeless by morning.

The island, in the middle of the Ohio river, was under water and its 10,000 residents without shelter.

An emergency was declared there. Darkness shrouded all of the city as the last of three major power plants went dead.

Candies sold at a premium everywhere.

Fires and explosions added to the burdens borne by the steel metropolis.

At least 49 were hurt in the series of blasts and fires.

There were five known or reported dead in Pittsburgh and a total of 27 reported to have perished throughout flood-ravaged Pennsylvania.

HOUSE ATTACK ON WM. HEARST IS APPLAUDED

Committee Action Is Called "Cowardly" By Attorney

By Richard L. Turner, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Washington, March 18.—(P)—The Senate lobby committee circumscribed one of William Randolph Hearst's two injunction suits today while the House, with shouts, whistles and rebel yells applauded a vitriolic attack upon the newspaper publisher.

With Hearst questioning the constitutionality of a subpoena for a telegram sent to one of his editorial writers and asking the courts to enjoin its delivery by the Western Union, the committee removed the basis of the suit by withdrawing the subpoena.

Nevertheless, it delivered a copy of the message to Chairman McNair (D-S. C.) of the House military committee, who promptly made the House chamber resound with his protest.

The telegram concerned him. The committee action almost as promptly was assailed by Elisha Hanson, counsel for Hearst, as "cowardly."

"The action of the Black committee in withdrawing its subpoena," said Hanson in a statement, "is admission of the enormity of its offense and its knowledge of the enormity of its offense."

"Mr. Hearst went into open court, which is the right of every citizen, to protect his liberties under the first, fourth and fifth amendments to the constitution of the United States. The Black committee has fled from court and written a coward's letter."

Hanson said a second suit to restrain the committee had not been killed by the withdrawal of the subpoena, and that it would be "pushed to its conclusion."

He said the message delivered to McNair "purported to be but was not a copy" of the telegram sent by Hearst to James T. Williams, Hearst's chief editorial writer in Washington. He did not expand this statement.

Milwaukee Mayor Would Maintain Its Reputation

Socialist Daniel W. Hoan Has Held Office For Twenty Years

Milwaukee, March 18.—(P)—The men and means to maintain Milwaukee's reputation for good government today were made the issues of the city election campaign, with Sheriff J. J. Shimmers opposing the election of the socialist Daniel W. Hoan, mayor for 20 years.

Bitterly opposing Hoan's stand for city purchase of the local electric utility and support of an ordinance permitting police closure of strike bound factories to prevent disorder, non-partisans showed their greatest strength in 12 years yesterday as Hoan and Shimmers were nominated out of a field of four.

Hoan led Shimmers by 4,500 votes, but the total for the three non-partisans was 26,859 greater than Hoan's 64,964. In 1932, his 75,487 topped the total of four opponents by 9,000.

"The non-partisan victory was a triumph for real Americanism, labor, business, and the professions, and also a determination to restore Milwaukee's real fame on April 7," Shimmers said. The election will be held on that date.

"The issue is now clearcut," Hoan said. "Shall, as in other large cities, the banks, power trust and other corrupting influences rule Milwaukee to its discredit or shall the common people retain the high standard of public service, honesty and fair dealing that has made our city famous throughout America? There can be no doubt about the final outcome."

Louis Piquette Seeks Freedom

Washington, March 18.—(P)—Louis Piquette, Chicago attorney who served the late John Dillinger and his associates, today asked the Supreme Court to free him from a two year prison term and $10,000 fine for conspiracy to harbor the late Homer Van Meter, a Dillinger gangster.

Piquette told the highest court his constitutional rights had been denied by a trial based on an alleged conspiracy involving Van Meter after he had been acquitted of an identical charge involving Dillinger.

Piquette appealed from a ruling by the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals January 2 which approved his trial and conviction.

AUTO CRASH VICTIM
Springfield, Ill., March 18.—(P)—C. L. Brittain, of 6637 Delmar avenue, University City, Mo., died in a hospital here today two hours after an automobile he was driving overturned near Glenarm, south of here.

He suffered a basal skull fracture and possible internal injuries. City police said his machine was apparently sideswiped by a truck.

FDR Wants $1,500,000,000 For Relief; Asks Business To Increase Employment

By Melbourne Christerson, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Washington, March 18.—(P)—President Roosevelt today appealed directly to business to increase employment, declaring that "upon it rested the responsibility as to whether the new $1,500,000,000 relief fund he asked of Congress would be adequate.

In a special message asking that a lump sum deposit of a billion and a half be placed to the credit of WPA for the 1937 fiscal year—a request that stirred protest and brought promise of a major battle in Congress—the chief executive placed special emphasis upon a call to industry to "organize a common effort" to provide more jobs.

"Only if industry fails to reduce substantially the number of those now out of work will another appropriations and further plans and policies be necessary," he said.

Declaring that about $1,000,000,000 would be available to add to the $1,500,000,000 he requested, Mr. Roosevelt presented this picture of the present relief situation: 5,300,000 families and unattached persons are in need of public assistance; 3,800,000 on the works program and 1,500,000 on local and state rolls.

Ever as his message was read in the Senate and House, however, signposts were hoisted that since Hopkins had reported the state WPA administration to be "filthy white," he was doubtful of conditions in other states.

Again attacking Hopkins personally, the youthful West Virginian said he "knew WPA was rotten and corrupt" in his state, but that since Hopkins had reported the state WPA administration to be "filthy white," he was doubtful of conditions in other states.

Speaker Byrne was one who foresaw a battle over earmarking. Senators

Clark (D-Mo.) asserted he was "tired of signing blank checks." Senator McNair (R-Ore.), minority leader, said no appropriation should be made "without a bill of particulars."

Representative Snell of New York, the Republican leader, termed the request "a last grab at the treasury before the election," and asserted "the demoralization of the federal relief work by spoils politics, incompetence, waste and futile boondoggling cannot be ignored longer by the Congress."

From other Republican sectors came cries of "politics" and "fraud." Some Democrats said they thought the amount was too large, but generally they pledged their support to push it through Congress.

Soon after the message was read, Senator Holt (D-W. Va.) arose in the Senate and demanded a "thorough and searching" investigation of the Works Progress Administration.

He reiterated charges that "politics" control the WPA administration in West Virginia and asserted that if Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator, "is as honest as he says he is and has any respect for the integrity" of the federal government, he could not oppose a senatorial inquiry.

What Price Propaganda?

This is a campaign year, and already the country is being flooded with propaganda by numerous agencies, principally the two major parties and the American Liberty League. The job of trying to convince the "people" one way or the other is already proving expensive. What the citizen needs to understand is that money is being spent lavishly, and that propaganda is not scattered for naught. Those who are spending regard their contributions as investments, not gifts. The ancient question of Satan, "Doth Job Serve God for naught?" might well be asked in this campaign.

Just how much the propaganda is costing may be judged from reports recently submitted to the House. The head of the Liberty League is being paid at the rate of $36,000 a year, with $18,000 additional for expenses. The organization employs five others who receive $10,000 or more, and four others who get $5,000.

Charles Michelson, publicity man for the Democratic National committee, is paid at the rate of $20,800 a year. At the end of February, the Democratic payroll had passed $4,000 a week. The Republicans were planning to spend $1,500 a week in Washington, $2,000 in Chicago, and smaller amounts in other cities.

It will be a great campaign, with plenty of ballyhoo, floods of literature, and endless columns of news stories. The citizen should listen, read, and then do his own thinking. Let him not forget that whoever is elected next fall will expect to get value received from the propaganda that helped swing the vote.

Roosevelts Celebrate

Tuesday was the 31st wedding anniversary for President and Mrs. Roosevelt. It was celebrated quietly with a private dinner at the White House, to which only a few old friends were invited. It was the last dinner for the season in the presidential home, as the couple leave today for their spring vacation.

They will go to Warm Springs for Friday, and on Saturday President and Mrs. Roosevelt will part, each to pursue the kind of vacation most agreeable. The President will go for a fishing cruise on his new yacht, Potomac. Mrs. Roosevelt will take an off-the-record tour, wandering about where she lists until March 25.

This vacation plan illustrates the unusual informality of the Roosevelts. Even though in high position, they reserve the right to do as they please in their spare time. They go where they like and engage in the form of recreation best suited to their individual tastes. After all, that is exactly what the average American does, and he resents interference with his manners and customs. He can hardly blame the President and his family for being typical Americans.

Helen of Troy a Fake?

The historians have reneged on us again. This time Robert P. Skinner, American ambassador to Turkey, reports to the State Department that excavations at the site of ancient Troy indicate that the legend of beautiful Helen and the 10 years' war have little foundation in fact.

Thus it appears the great Homer put one over on us for the sake of a good story. Where he got the "Helen stuff" as the glamorous background of the mythical war, nobody seems to know.

But whatever the historians prove or disprove, we shall doubtless go on reading Homer, because Homer is readable. Much history, in fact, is doubtfully founded on "good" stories such as those Homer told. And when we have separated the wheat from the chaff, we still have adequate factual history for the ages.

Marital Five-Year Plan

The British have contributed the newest approach to the marriage and divorce problem. It is a bill, already passed by the House of Commons, prohibiting divorce until a marriage has been in existence at least five years.

The grounds for divorce may range from desertion to insanity and habitual drunkenness, but regardless of the charge, it is the theory of this bill that every avenue of conciliation shall be exhausted before separation can finally be proposed. In a word, the law would force couples to make an honest effort to "live out" their differences.

Were this law in effect in America, the trade at Reno conceivably might drop. Moreover, the definite prospect of a five-year contract might tend to slow up the marriage mill in the beginning. So it is an interesting experiment the British are proposing. When they have tried it for a time, perhaps we might try it ourselves.

SO THEY SAY

Just as soon as you get a uniform you can expect to find a lot of new friends. Shun them. . . most of them plan to use you and not amuse you.

—Mayor Pierello La Guardia, New York City, addressing police rookies.

Don'tcha listen to any talk about me building a million dollar hotel up in Death Valley. I'd just have to stick there and stand around for the folks to look at.

—"Death Valley" Scotty.

I am not quitting from lassitude. I am getting out so as to increase at a difficult time any capacity for the common good.

—Former Premier Andre Tardieu.

We have long believed that not more than one in every thousand of our licensed drivers today is capable of safe operation of a motor vehicle at a speed in excess of 50 miles an hour.

—Charles A. Harnett, New York commissioner of motor vehicles.

It is now the duty of this government to keep hands off, to refuse all advances to the signatories of the Versailles treaty seeking military or money aid to any of the parties to the treaty.

—U. S. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, Illinois.

My Dear Friends:
Several weeks ago when your first advertisement of the church appeared in a full page announcement I was very much pleased with its appearance and wrote you a letter of commendation.

For a number of years a member of the Journal-Courier staff has repeatedly spoken to me regarding an advertisement of this character paid for by the churches; my reaction has always been that the church could not afford this expense. Therefore, when I wrote my letter of appreciation I assumed that the regular advertising agency of the local newspapers had procured this fine advertisement and that it would appear but once.

Now I discover that I was mistaken; that a foreign agency solicited these advertisements and that among them there are several from men who sell intoxicating liquor.

During my ministry I have been, and still am, opposed to these two things: FIRST, any foreign agency coming into the community soliciting our merchants in the name and for the benefit of the church; SECOND, I have stood consistently through the years against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage.

Thanking you for publishing this letter, I am

Very sincerely yours,
M. L. PONTIUS,

Minister Central Christian Church.

Mrs. Rosa Strawn Has 80th Birthday

PARENTS OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bown of Route 3, Winchester, are the parents of a daughter born yesterday morning at 4:15 o'clock at Our Saviour's Hospital.

John H. Hughes of Meredosia was a business visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

REUNITED WITH DAUGHTER HE BELIEVED DIED 24 YEARS AGO

HELEN WALLIS RODGERS
St. Louis, Mo.

VIRGIL E. WALLIS
Roodhouse

For 24 years Virgil E. Wallis of Roodhouse thought that his daughter, Helen, was dead. The child was placed in a St. Louis orphanage after Wallis and his wife separated, and he was advised of the girl's death.

A few days ago an attractive young woman knocked at the door of the Wallis home in Roodhouse, seeking her father. She was Helen Wallis Rodgers of St. Louis. Mr. Wallis was overjoyed when he saw his daughter whom he believed died in infancy.

An unusual reunion followed, in which the father and daughter told of their lives during the years of their separation. The daughter was adopted from the orphanage by a St. Louis family and educated in the schools of that city. She attended and graduated from a nurses' training school. In the above picture Mrs. Rodgers is shown with her small child. Mr. Wallis remarried a number of years and continued to make Roodhouse his home.

Three Irish Plays Given by Dramatic Club at MacMurray

St. Patrick's Day Observed with Typical Sketches of Emerald Isle

Appropriate to the date of March 17, St. Patrick's day, was the presentation of three Irish one-act plays given by members and apprentices of the MacMurray Dramatic club, Tuesday evening. The program combined pathos, humor, and fantasy.

Mystical, fantastic, and religious beliefs of the Irish folk were featured in the first play, "The Land of Heart's Desire" by William Butler Yeats. The scene took place in the peasant hut of the Bruin family. All of the members of this cast were apprentices, and should be commended for their outstanding work in their first principal dramatic performances.

In the play, "Riders to the Sea," by Synge, a weird and sad atmosphere pervaded around the lives of some Irish women whose husbands, sons, and brothers were seamen and gave their lives to the sea. The individual character interpretation and expression and the unity of words by this cast was noteworthy. Elizabeth Lumley, sophomore speech major, was called an hour before the final performance to substitute for one of the leading parts, previously practiced by Moyne Andrews, who was unable to appear on account of illness. Mary Sue Wootton, freshman speech major, then substituted for the male role which Miss Lumley was to have played. Particular credit should be given to these two actresses who met this situation so well.

The series of plays closed with one of Lady Gregory's comedies, "The Workhouse Ward." The quarreling and pillow fights of two old Irishmen who were bedfast in a workhouse ward and the interruption of the sister of one of the men turned the theme of humor for this play. Two freshman speech majors, Dorothy Deuell and Jean Whitling, portrayed these characters with understanding and appreciation.

The casts for the evening's program were as follows:
The Land of Heart's Desire—Maurine Bruin, a peasant—Catherine Ainsworth.
Shawn Bruin, his son—Mary Sue Wootton.
Father Hart, a priest—Bernadine Jones.

Bridget Bruin, Maurine's wife—Margaret Evans.

Maire Bruin, their daughter-in-law—Louise Lambert.

A Child—Frances Roper.

Riders to the Sea—Maurine, an old woman—Anna Mae Wugan.

Bartley, her son—Mary Sue Wootton. Cathleen, her daughter—Rachel Wise.

Nora, a younger daughter—Elizabeth Lumley.

Men and Women—Beulah Fillmer, Bertha Boeman, Jessie Phillips, Marjorie Blackburn, Emilene Harber, Beverly Welch, Eloise Proemmel.

The Workhouse Ward—Michael Miskell, a pauper—Jean Whitling.

Mike McInerney, a pauper—Dorothy Deuell.

Honore Donohoe, a country woman—Sara Grimpes.

Directors—Marian Chase Schaeffer, Dorothy Remley.

Crews—Stage Craft class and Dramatic club apprentices.

A LIGHT SMOKE OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

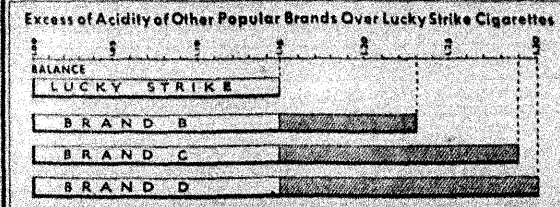

Luckies are less acid. For hundreds of years, tobaccos were selected—and gradations in flavor secured—by the roughest sort of rule of thumb methods. Hence, one of the most important innovations made by the Research Department was provision for chemical analysis of selected tobacco samples before purchase: the resulting reports offer the professional buyer an accurate guide and reinforce his expert judgment based on the senses of sight, smell, and touch. Thus extreme variations toward acidity or alkalinity are precluded by such selection and subsequent blending.

Luckies—A LIGHT SMOKE—of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco!

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

BANISH Tired Feet FOREVER

A new kind of shoe called Perfect-Eze has proved a real blessing to thousands of women who formerly suffered untold torture from tired, burning, aching feet.
Women who did not realize how much Tired Feet can affect the rest of the body are among those who praise Perfect-Eze most highly, because it has ended the backaches, the fatigue, the leg pains that authorities say are often directly traceable to Tired Feet.
And it's easy to understand why. With ordinary shoes, the jarring jolts of pavements and floors must be absorbed by the feet or passed along to other parts of the body. With Perfect-Eze, these tiring jolts and jars are absorbed by the invisible Perfect-Eze sole. Soft as a kitten's tread, this invisible cellular sole cushions every step you take—makes walking a real pleasure.
Slip on a pair of Perfect-Eze Shoes and see how much better they make your feet feel. You'll want to dance with joy when you realize the blessed comfort these beautifully styled shoes now bring within your easy reach.

Are You a John or a Tom?

(short, short story)

John: "How's the new home, Tom?"
Tom: "Fine, why don't you buy a home instead of paying rent?"
John: "I can't afford to buy a home."
Tom: "How much money have you paid out in rent the past ten years?"
John: "Why let's see $30 a month!"
Tom: "Well, that's $3600. It would have paid for a home if it were financed the Savings and Loan way. The payments are like rent. You pay principal and interest monthly."
John: "That sounds easy enough. I'm going to investigate the Savings and Loan plan today. You say the Savings and Loan Association is in the Applebee Building on West State Street? I'll go right down and talk to the secretary."

Four WPA Projects In Progress Here; Three are Pending

State Director Says Water and Paving Plan May Not Materialize

Applications for three Public Works Administration projects totaling $942,144 in construction cost are pending in Morgan county, in addition to four active projects with a total cost of $714,886, Carl H. Bauer, State Director of PWA, announced in a summary of the state PWA program.

None of the pending or unallotted projects may reach realization because all appropriations for PWA have been exhausted. All of them, however, have been completely examined by the state director's office, so that if sufficient funds are made available for more projects in the state at least some of them could be begun promptly.

The projects for which PWA funds have been allotted under the 1935 program are the Jacksonville school, Jacksonville School for the Deaf (2), and Jacksonville School for the Blind, on which grants totalling $321,482 have been made.

Morgan county projects on the pending list which are regarded as desirable and which met PWA examinations as to finance, engineering and legal phases are: Jacksonville Hospital, Jacksonville Waterworks and Jacksonville Paving, totalling $942,144 in construction cost.

Applications were also submitted for aid on the Waverly Waterworks on which examinations have not as yet been completed.

Under the 1935 program, Mr. Bauer said, Illinois has been allotted loans and grants totalling $29,253,682—making possible the construction of 215 projects with an estimated total cost of $51,971,679. These 215 approved projects brought Illinois political subdivision loans totalling $6,318,455 and outright grants totalling $22,935,227.

Applications were filed for 694 Illinois PWA projects under the 1935 program, but because of the limited funds available, not all could be allotted. The estimated construction cost of the 694 projects applied for was approximately $195,000,000 and the PWA loans and grants requested totalled $198,500,000. The balance of about $3,500,000 was the amount the applicants were to supply toward the construction cost out of their own funds. The loans made by PWA also were binding obligations that would require repayment.

Communities still are making application to the Illinois office for projects, and Director Bauer's staff is examining these as they are received, although no allotments are possible at this time.

"The large total of applications that were made before the September deadline, and the fact that applications are still being made, are all the more interesting," Director Bauer said, "because they indicate a desire on the part of local and state officials to build permanent and useful public improvements, for which they are willing to furnish the greater share of the cost. The fact that these applications originated with the communities themselves shows their desire to cooperate with the national government in the PWA program."

Corn Shucking Job Finished in Spring

Scott County Farmers Catch Up With Work Delayed by Bad Weather

Glasgow—The farmers in this section of the county, who have been delayed in getting their corn crops out of the fields by the unusual weather and bad conditions of the fields, are taking advantage of the present good weather to finish husking their corn. Only a few of our farmers have previously finished this work.

The dirt roads surrounding this village are getting back into condition for auto travel after suffering a relapse last week, caused by the rain earlier in the week. Practically all the dirt roads are now being used by motorists.

Private Drives Graveled
The private driveways belonging to J. A. Young, Edward Sherwin, W. E. Carver and Ben Cowper were graveled Tuesday with gravel from the county crusher, south of town. The owners of the drives financed the work.

Glasgow Personals
Someone probably unaware of the fact that it is against the law to dump trash along a state road, deposited a pile of old cans and other rubbish in the ditch along the right-of-way of the Aisey-Glasgow gravel road, just east of town. The violator should be warned of this offense in order to prevent further trouble. This act not only prevents proper drainage but causes an unsightly appearance along the highway.

Two soft places have appeared in the gravel road between here and Aisey, caused by seepy earth under the gravel. However it is still possible to drive around these places and still remain on the gravel.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawson and family were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Rolly Cooper in Manchester Sunday afternoon.

Quite a few cases of "flu" have appeared in this vicinity in the past week. However, none of the cases have proven very serious to date.

Several of our citizens attended the dance in Aisey Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haney and children of Aisey, John Chambers and John Hanback of East Alton, Lawrence McGuire, John Haney, Paul Howard and William Peek were all guests at the Claude Haney home during the day Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilkerson were callers in Springfield Monday, driving back a new car.

COUPLE MARRIED BY ASHLAND MAGISTRATE

Rev. Pratt Speaks On "Serene Mind"

Preaching Mission Draws Crowd at Westminster; Societies Attend

The attendance at the second night's service of the preaching mission at Westminster church Tuesday evening was nearly double that of the first, and interest is obviously increasing. It was College night, and the ministers were assisted on the platform by President H. C. Jaquith of Illinois College, who read the scripture from the sermon on the Mount, and by Dr. F. B. Oxtoby, who offered the prayer. The College Men's octet sang three numbers, and were in charge of Ernest Bone in the absence of the director, W. Z. Fletcher, with Clarence Massey at the piano. The boys lived up to their reputation of unusual harmony and won the applause of the audience. Seven of the eight literary societies of Illinois College were represented, and the pennant went to the girls' society, Chi Beta, with about 50 per cent of their members present. Miss Mildred Martin graciously received the award from the pastor, Rev. W. C. Meeker.

Rev. Mr. Pratt took as his subject "The Serene Mind," constantly reminding the hearers of Jesus' command not to be over anxious about things temporal. He held the close attention of his audience as he delivered a very forceful message.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning With a Smile

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks ugly.

Calomel is only a makeshift. A more powerful movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 30c.

Murder Indictment Returned Against Jersey County Man

Judge Wright Refuses Earl Dawson's Offer to Plead Guilty to Manslaughter

Jerseyville—Earl Dawson was arraigned late Tuesday afternoon in the circuit court of Jersey county on a charge of murder returned against him by the grand jury Monday.

The indictment was returned into the court Monday afternoon and a bench warrant issued directed to Sheriff Floyd Darr for service on the person of the defendant. Dawson has been in the county jail since the fatal shooting of Clarence Keeshner the afternoon of February 28th, at Grafton.

Dawson entered a plea of not guilty and Judge Walter Wright, the presiding jurist, set the date for hearing of the case on April 6th and ordered a special venire of fifty drawn for service in the case.

Prior to setting of the case for trial, Attorney I. D. Snedeker, who was appointed by the court Monday afternoon to defend Dawson, indicated to the court that Dawson would enter a plea of guilty to manslaughter. Acting State's Attorney T. J. Sullivan agreed to accept the plea as suggested.

Judge Wright overruled the offer to plead to a manslaughter charge, holding that drunkenness did not exonerate an individual in the commission of an offense.

The grand jury continued its session Tuesday evening until Saturday morning at nine o'clock when it will report to Judge Wright the other indictments returned.

To Relief Meeting
A number from Jersey county expect to attend the district meeting of relief staffs in the counties of the seventh district to be held today at the Broadview Hotel in East St. Louis.

Those from this county who expect to be present are Miss Mary Hanna, county administrator; W. A. Leigh, chairman of the local commission; Mike Costello, chairman of the board of directors; Representative Hugh W. Cross of this district and John Bloomer, county superintendent of welfare.

OLD BICYCLE KNOWN HERE TEXAS RELIC

Banker Rides Machine Once Owned by Sons of Gen. Ben H. Grierson

Albert Knollenberg of Canadian, Texas, former local citizen, has sent to friends here a photograph and clipping taken from the March issue of the "Texas Banker." The picture shows C. N. Bassett, president of the State National Bank of El Paso, astride an old-fashioned high-wheel bicycle. It is said Bassett actually rode the "wheel" on a recent visit to Fort Davis, where it is kept as a relic.

The contraption was purchased some fifty years ago by the sons of the late Gen. Ben H. Grierson, one-time resident of Jacksonville. Mr. Knollenberg says that when he lived here, he occasionally saw the old-fashioned bicycle, which, he believes, belonged to Harold King. Gen. Grierson was at one time commander of the troops in the old army post at the Texas fort.

is any oil any different?

Different because it's alloyed

We don't mean one of those "talking point" differences. We mean a real difference. Alloying Germ Processed oil goes beyond refining and re-refining. After every harmful element is cleaned out, the patented Conoco Germ Processing element is scientifically put IN.

That's what brings you this alloyed oil, with its strange attachment for pistons, cylinders, and all other engine parts—including every known type of bearing. All these parts really become oil-plated!

This oil-plating is extra. It's a plus—added to the tougher, more slippery, heat-beating Germ Processed oil film. You've got this high-durability oil film, sliding on thoroughly oil-plated surfaces, and so you're that much farther from wear and noise.

You're facing hotter days and harder runs. Out with dirty winter oil! Only the Conoco man can change you—quickly—to Germ Processed, the alloyed oil. Continental Oil Company.

Browning Wins Place In Club Checker Tourney

Woods And Cox Battle For Place In County Tournament; Special Match

Paul Browning will be one of the Jacksonville Checker Club's representatives in the four-county checker tournament, but final play in the Morgan county tournament failed to produce the second man, as Marion Woods, of Jacksonville and George Cox of Nortonville tied for second place and will have to engage in a special match to determine who will be the second man on the Morgan county team.

There were several upsets in the tournament at the City Hall last night. George Cox the veteran player of the tourney defeated Browning two games. Cox then met Woods in two games, which proved to be the toughest games of the evening. With the men battling for a place on the four-county team, both players studied the board carefully and made no errors. Both games ended in draws making a playoff necessary.

Earl Traver of Pisgah, who was in eleventh place when play started last night climbed into a tie for sixth place with Donald Chapman by winning five games while only losing one.

Cox won four games during the evening and tied two, bringing him from fourth place to a tie for second.

Louis Biggs, who with P. G. Stein won last year's tournament, finished in fourth place. William E. Thompson, finished in fifth place. Frank Bracewell who finished in fifth place last year in a field of eighteen dropped to eighth place in the present tournament.

It is planned to hold the four-county tournament early in April. Play in Scott, Greene and Cass counties will probably start next week.

The four-county tournament will be held in this city, with Louis Biggs, president; P. G. Stein, vice-president; and Frank Bracewell, secretary-treasurer of the Jacksonville Checker Club, in charge.

"Have you had any experience as a model?" the girl asked.
Toby turned east. She was aware, as she walked, of a feeling of excitement, a warmth that brought color to her cheeks and made her step light. Oh, if she really could get such a job, could earn half as much money as Hiatt had mentioned. It would be a fortune!
She thought, "But I'm not like those girls in the advertisements. They're beautiful!"
The photographer had seemed to believe that she could be a model, though. He had chosen her for his picture instead of Maurine Ball. Maybe she could do it, after all. Maybe she could—
"What is your name?" the girl asked crisply.
"Ryan—Toby Ryan."
"Oh!" The other girl smiled in friendly fashion. "You're the girl Mr. Hiatt telephoned about?"
"Yes," Toby hadn't known Mr. Hiatt was going to telephone but she would be eternally grateful to him for it.
"Mr. Blake is busy now," the girl at the desk said, "but he'll see you later. While you're waiting you can fill out this card. Have you had any experience as a model?"
Toby said that she had not. The girl did not, as Toby had feared, look as though this was a shocking admission. Instead she said, "I'll let you know when Mr. Blake can see you."
Toby retired to the farthest chair and began to fill in the card. She wrote her full name, address, and the telephone number at her rooming house. In the space opposite age she wrote "19", opposite weight, wrote 110 pounds. She added that she was 5 feet 3 inches tall, wore size 12 dresses, four-A shoes, 9 stockings, 2 1/4 hats and 6 gloves.
Toby had written many applications for employment but she had never seen such a card as this. Absorbed by her surroundings, the time slipped by quickly. She was startled when she heard her name called.
"Miss Ryan—"
It was the girl at the desk who had spoken. She went on, "Mr. Blake will see you now. Go through the gate and down the corridor. It's the last office on the right."
Toby followed instructions. Before the last door on the right she halted. The door stood open.

City Again Enters National Campaign For Highway Safety

Handsone Bronze Plaque To Be Given Winner Of National Contest

Jacksonville has entered the National Traffic Safety Contest for 1936, it was announced today by Frank Kiloran, who received confirmation of the city's enrollment from the National Safety Council in Chicago. Jacksonville participated in the 1935 contest but failed to obtain recognition largely because of the three auto fatalities in the city last year.

The entry form was signed by Mayor F. J. Blackburn, who designated Chief Frank Kiloran to handle all local details and to act as liaison between Jacksonville and the National Contest Committee in Chicago.

More than 800 cities and 33 states took part in the 1935 contest and with the increasing interest being shown in safety in all parts of the country today, even a larger number of cities and municipalities are expected to enroll in the 1936 contest.

The cities are divided into six population groups and Jacksonville is in group 6, having 10,000 to 35,000 population. A handsome bronze plaque is awarded to the winner in each division. Certificates will be given to the second and third place winners in each group.

Added impetus is given to the contest this year due to the launching of the National Safety Council's five year campaign to slash traffic accident fatalities 35 per cent by 1941 and save 38,000 lives. This drive, which started January 1, received the endorsement of the governors of virtually all states and the mayors and safety directors—nearly a thousand—of municipalities. The cooperation of the contest cities is needed particularly to insure the success of the mammoth life-saving program.

The local campaign will follow closely the trend and tested methods of traffic accident prevention which have proved successful in many cities and certain states and which are recommended by the National Safety Council.

The contest efforts will center on holding the motor vehicle death rate down to a minimum and reducing it to the average of the past three years. These items—the years death rate and the reduction over previous records—count for 50 out of the total 100 points in the grading schedule.

To accomplish this reduction, city officials will strive to increase the quality of traffic engineering and to plan. A maximum of 25 points may be won by the city if these activities are thoroughly successful. Accident reports are to be submitted each month to the contest committee.

The educational features of the drive will also be stressed. Chief among the activities planned are the promotion of child safety education and school bus patrols, and a year-long campaign of public education stressing the moral and civic responsibilities of motorists and pedestrians. Direct appeals will be made for a stricter observance of the traffic laws to insure safer driving and walking.

A plea for the cooperation of every Jacksonville citizen in helping the city win the contest was voiced by Chief Kiloran.

"We cannot possibly make a showing through the efforts of a few men alone," he said. "We will make every effort to hold up our end and I know we can count on all local organizations, as well as citizens, to do their part."

"The reduction of traffic accidents, however, is the duty and responsibility of every man, woman and child in Jacksonville. One thoughtless or careless act on the part of a driver or a pedestrian may ruin an otherwise perfect record. A vast majority of our citizens are careful and law-abiding, but a few drive in such a way that they are likely to cause an accident at any time. These few will jeopardize our chances of winning this great contest, unless, as I hope, they change their driving habits as a matter of civic duty."

Annual Spring Opening Marked By Merchants Here

Display Of Early Season Wear Are Shown In Windows Of Downtown Stores

A few last breezes of winter's fierce winds lowered the temperatures, but failed to dispel the enthusiasm of local window shoppers for the merchants' spring opening last night. Windows were brightened at 7 o'clock on displays of the latest fashions from the refrigerator of some home, to the tip-top bit of headwear that sister may be perching on her head upstairs for the approval of a waiting gentleman.

The opening was a signal to buyers for today and the weeks to come that local stores are prepared to meet demands for articles soon to grace the Easter parade and add some welcome touches to the home after housecleaning has revealed the need of new furnishings.

The tailored suit for women was displayed in a variety of styles and colors with accessories in the manish trend. Feminine frocks that lent the gayest colors to last night's hanger of spring, seemed to cater slightly to the variations of blue, with almost every other color in the modern assortment present to prove their "just as correct" contributions to style.

A few seasons ago, men began to brighten up their comparatively dull wardrobes with an occasional bright plaid checked sports coat. The movement seems to have marked some degree of emancipation from "blues and grays and browns." There are smartly tailored masculine articles in these conventional modes, but the pattern is plaid and stripe is found, not only in ties and socks, but in shirts, top coats and suits.

Today, tomorrow or the next few weeks may bring an army of local shoppers to the business district for lists of items that are needed for proper celebration of the passing of winter and "extra-blanket" days, but the store windows last night gave every indication of being able to fill these needs completely.

Improvements Are Made At Nichols Park By Workmen

Driveways Improved; Plan Construction Of Roque, Tennis Courts

Plans for extensive improvements are being made at Nichols Park under the direction of the park superintendent, F. A. Robinson. For several weeks workmen have been engaged in the task of improving the park roads and with the arrival of mild weather the improvements are rapidly taking shape.

This week park employees have removed three trees from Central Park. These trees were set in the park for live as a result their removal has taken place. The removal of several feet of water pipe used to water flower beds has also been completed. It was impossible to drain these pipes last fall and altho the water was shut off the low temperatures resulted in much damage to them. It was pointed out that they are no longer needed since the flower beds have been removed and grass seed has been sown.

At Nichols park the work of resurfacing roadways is expected to start soon. One of the improvements in the highway system is the change of the road around the playgrounds, this thoroughfare having been constructed to the west of the former right-of-way. Because of the increased demand for sheltered space for summer family reunions and other events the park board has made plans to construct an additional summer house. This building will be constructed just east of the present dining pavilion, and will be so built that it can be transformed into four separate rooms.

The park board contemplates the construction of a new concrete tennis court, an additional roque court and two shuffle board courts. At the present time the courts for these games are inadequate to care for the number of players desiring to participate. There are no shuffle board courts at the park but there has been an urgent demand for the construction of the courts. The work on these courts is being performed by use of PWA labor.

Drain tile has been laid in the park to care for water that has flooded sections of the park, the tile being laid to carry the water into Morgan Lake. Work is also being done on the valve house that stands on the Morgan lake dam.

State Biologist Speaker At Lions Club Meeting Here

Dr. Bruce Robinson Discusses Communicable Diseases Wednesday Night

The ordinary patient murmurs a polite but sincere, "Ouch!" when a doctor injects a bit of diphtheria antitoxin or some other serum that is necessary to prevent spread of a communicable disease, but few persons realize the years of research, small armies of chemists and workers, and the months of careful preparation that precedes that treatment.

The Lions Club heard and witnessed solutions to some of these "mysteries" last night at their meeting in the Peacock Inn. President R. C. Henley cooperated with E. R. Franklin, program chairman, to present Dr. Bruce Robinson of Springfield, head of the state biological laboratories. He was introduced by Dr. A. C. Henley, son of the club's president, who is also working in the state laboratory.

Dr. Robinson stated that Illinois began this work July 1, 1933 with the purpose of prevention of communicable diseases. The historical background of vaccines and antitoxins is a record of painstaking research that started in the 17th century with the discovery of the first "enemy" injection against the dreaded smallpox that often wiped out entire cities.

Pasteur, of the French Academy of science, some years later developed a rabies, or mad dog vaccine. Extensive tests have proven the value of immunization. In Jackson, Michigan, a few years ago, typhoid fever in the city water supply caused a serious epidemic. The state had immunized the 6,000 inmates of the prison there. Although they used the same water supply and were in quarters more favorable to the spread of came down with typhoid.

Dr. Robinson carried on his discussion with moving pictures illustrative of the processes involved in making rabies and diphtheria antitoxin. The slight amount of serum injected in the person exposed to the latter disease requires six months in preparation. First the positive germ is "needed" into the neck or shoulder of a horse. When the disease has spread sufficiently, about three gallons of blood are removed from the animal. This contains the serum which goes through the process of removing all elements but the usable vaccine.

Laboratories maintain large stables of animals from five to ten years old for this purpose. Rabies serum is obtained from the brain of a rabbit which has died from the infection. The state doctor said that further development of research facilities in this state would bring about a time when epidemics such as the current scarlet fever "plague" in Jacksonville could be prevented to a large extent by making the serum available to everyone.

Guests at the meeting last evening included Dr. Mary Louise Newman, Dr. Paul Hartley and Ernest Lair.

Members Of Skilled Drivers Club Meet

Meeting Is Held Wednesday Night At Farm Bureau Office By Group

The Skilled Drivers club met at the Farm Bureau offices last evening with thirty-one members answering the roll call. The president, Wilma Oxley, acted also as secretary in the absence of Catherine Stevenson.

Paul Anderson gave a talk on "Gasoline Economy," mentioning the following facts: "When you drive a mile with the choke on, enough gas is used to drive three miles. Every time the accelerator is pushed to the floor, up to 60 per cent of the gas is wasted. Accelerate gradually, and save fuel. Driving in second with the accelerator to the floor wastes even more gasoline."

Reports were given on Highway, Elizabeth Hess; Farming as the Most Hazardous Occupation, Louise Blimling; Safety News Items, Floyd Hess; Demonstration, Edward Scott; The Publicity Prize, Marjorie Jewsbury; Kerosene Fires, Charles Houston; Questions and Answers in the February Bulletin, Donald Reed.

"Lawrence Oxley, Farm Bureau official, gave a talk to the members. He is required to make a report to the Morgan county directors monthly on the progress of the club. Mr. Oxley is offering a personal prize to members who are not absent or tardy for meetings from the present time until next fall.

Lessons III and IV were assigned to Eunice Huston and Herman Horner for the next meeting to be held Wednesday, April 1. The recreation period at that time will be arranged by Dorothy Meyer and Nell Staff. The following members signed the honor roll of the "Safety or Else Campaign."

Charge Three With Theft Of Hogs In Appearance Here

Larceny Warrants Are Issued Against Trio; Waive Preliminary Hearing

Three members of an alleged hog stealing ring that has been operating in Morgan and Cass counties for several months were charged with larceny in the Justice of the Peace court of C. S. Smith yesterday afternoon. William Wood, 49 year old Beardstown relief worker, James Wheatley Wood, a son, and Willard "Burr" Hageman, both of Beardstown, waived preliminary hearing in the court.

The three were bound over to the hearing of the Grand Jury which convenes in May.

Bond for each of the men was fixed at $2,500. They were returned to the county jail.

James Wood and Hageman signed confessions last week, and the father "cracked" Tuesday under the repeated questioning of county officers, also signing a written confession.

The elder Wood, according to State's Attorney W. H. Ashner, told the whole story of his thefts in Morgan county after several hours of examination. All of the accused men first stoutly denied that they were mixed up in any crimes, but wilted when confronted by discrepancies in their own stories.

William Wood told the state's attorney he participated in the larceny of 2 hogs at the farm of Joseph Zellar near Alexander on March 3, and the same night helped to steal 4 others from the farm of John Laurent.

These hogs were tied and placed in the back of a Ford V-8 coach, from which the rest were removed. The hogs were hauled to Bluffs, where they were sold to a packing company representative.

On the night of March 4, Woods said he and others visited the farm of Clyde Williams, west of Chapin, where they stole 3 hogs. These also were given a ride in the Ford and marketed at Bluffs. It was due to the cooperation of the Bluffs buyer to the sheriff's office that the alleged thieves were traced and arrested.

Most of the hogs stolen weighed more than 200 pounds and brought a good price, the checks averaging more than $100 each time a load was sold. The money was divided three ways between the father and two sons, according to William Woods' statement.

Authorities are continuing search for a third member of the Wood family, Elmer, "Smookey" Wood, who disappeared after the investigation started.
